Possible PhD Exam Subject:

1. Have you begun to think about an advisor and an area of research? The names of the PhD written exams above may suggest areas for you to consider. You will be expected to have a secured an advisor by the end of March your second year and have a supervisory committee in place by the end of the spring semester.
2. Do you feel your communication skills have improved this year? (e.g. in constructing a web page, answering student questions, making quizzes, logical reasoning in writing proofs, discerning the desired level of precision in proofs)
3. You will be asked about what courses you plan to take next fall in the spring interview. Plan to talk with your mentor about courses you would like to take. You can indicate courses you would like to see here.
4. Have you completed your Individual Development Plan and discussed it with your Mentor/ Advisor?
5. Other remarks
